ARCHOS Smart Home app
Introducing the ARCHOS Smart Home app

The ARCHOS Smart Home app allows you to use your connected objects. It is available on your Archos

Smart Home Tablet and on Google Play™ or iTunes®. You can manage your connected objects from a distance.

For more detailed information, please consult the device's Quick Start Guide or the corresponding FAQs.

Main tabs

1. "Rooms" tab (See more details below)

2. "Programs" tab (See more details below)

3. "All accesoriees" tab (See more details below)
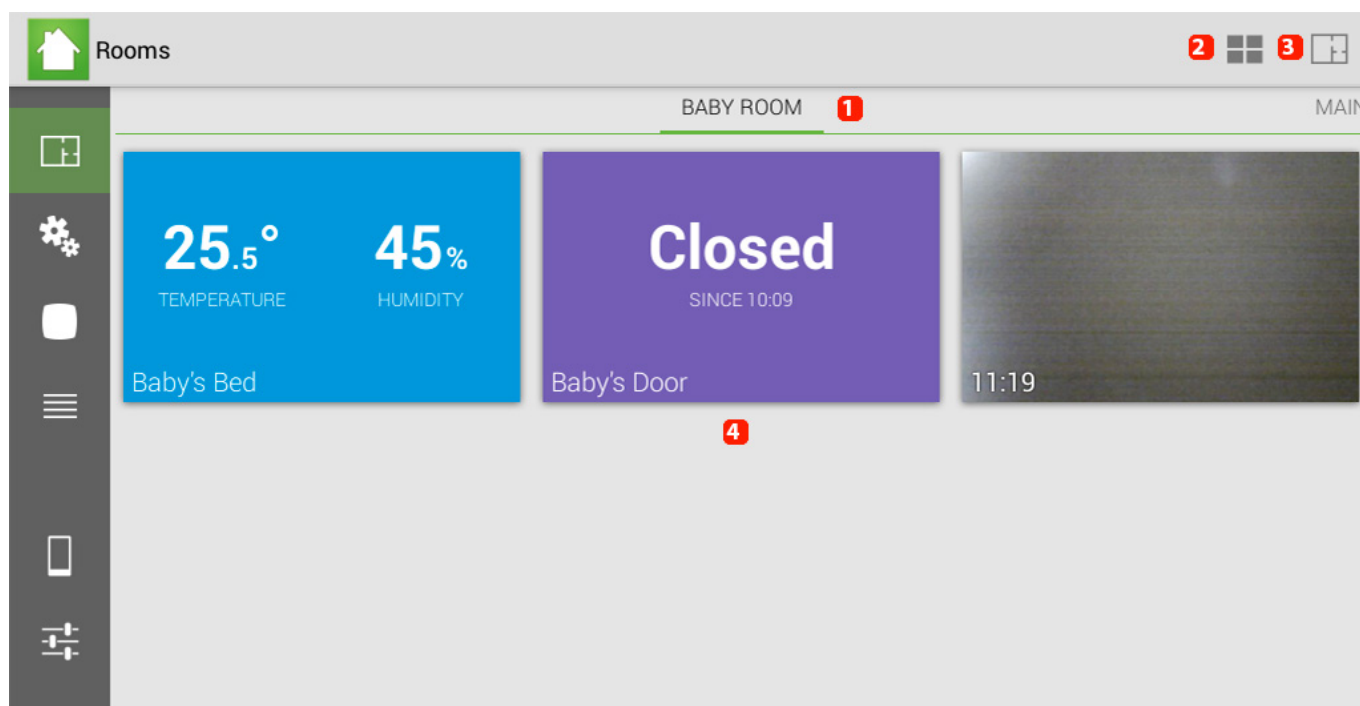

4. "History" tab (See more details below)

ARCHOS Smart Home app

5. "Connection" tab (See more details below)

6. "General" tab (See more details below)

Rooms tab

From the Rooms tab, you can manage the accessories location and access quickly the data they send to the tablet.

1. It displays in which room you are. If you have created many rooms, slide the displayed room left/right to display them.

2. It allows to reorganize the items the way you waant. You can add/move or delete information.
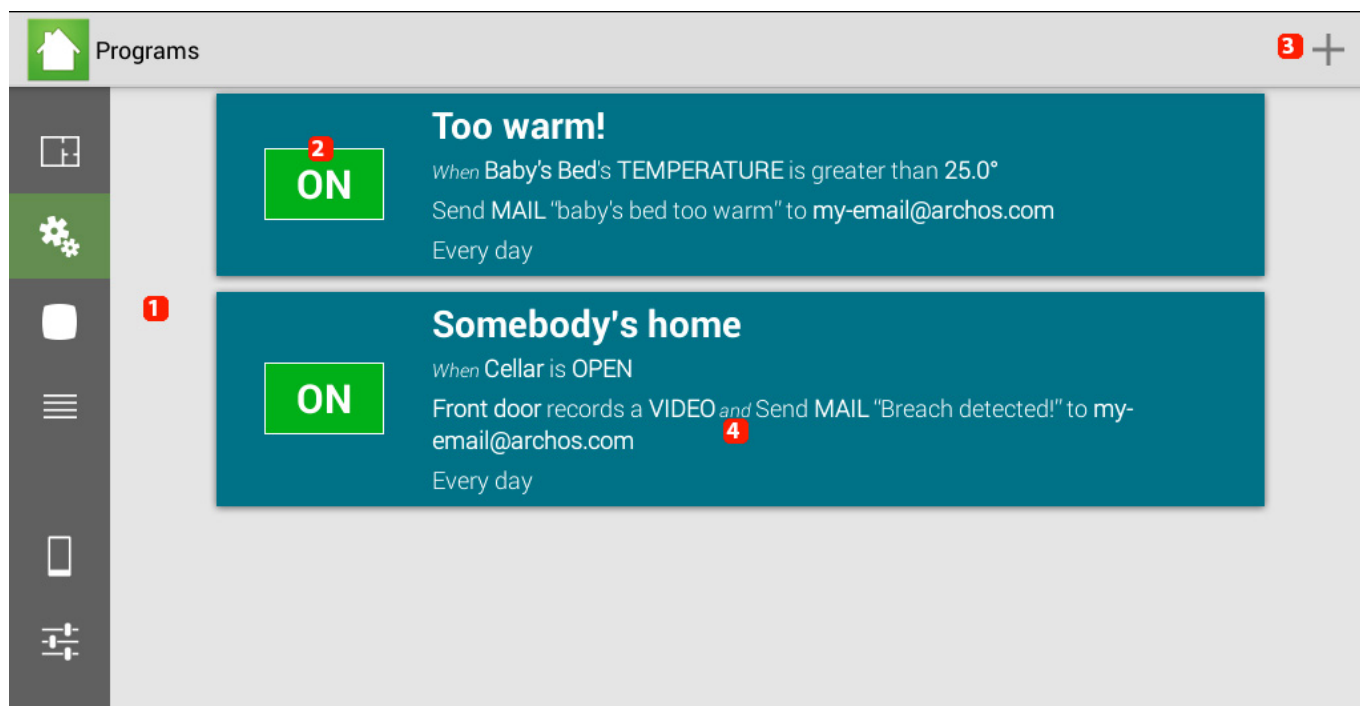

3. It allows to add/modify/delete a room.

4. Blocks of information and each block corresponds to an accessory.

ARCHOS Smart Home app

Select a block to display detailed information.

Programs tab

Programs are scenarios that you create for interactions between one and many accessories (for example: If the temperature outside is below 0° C, you tablet sends you an email).

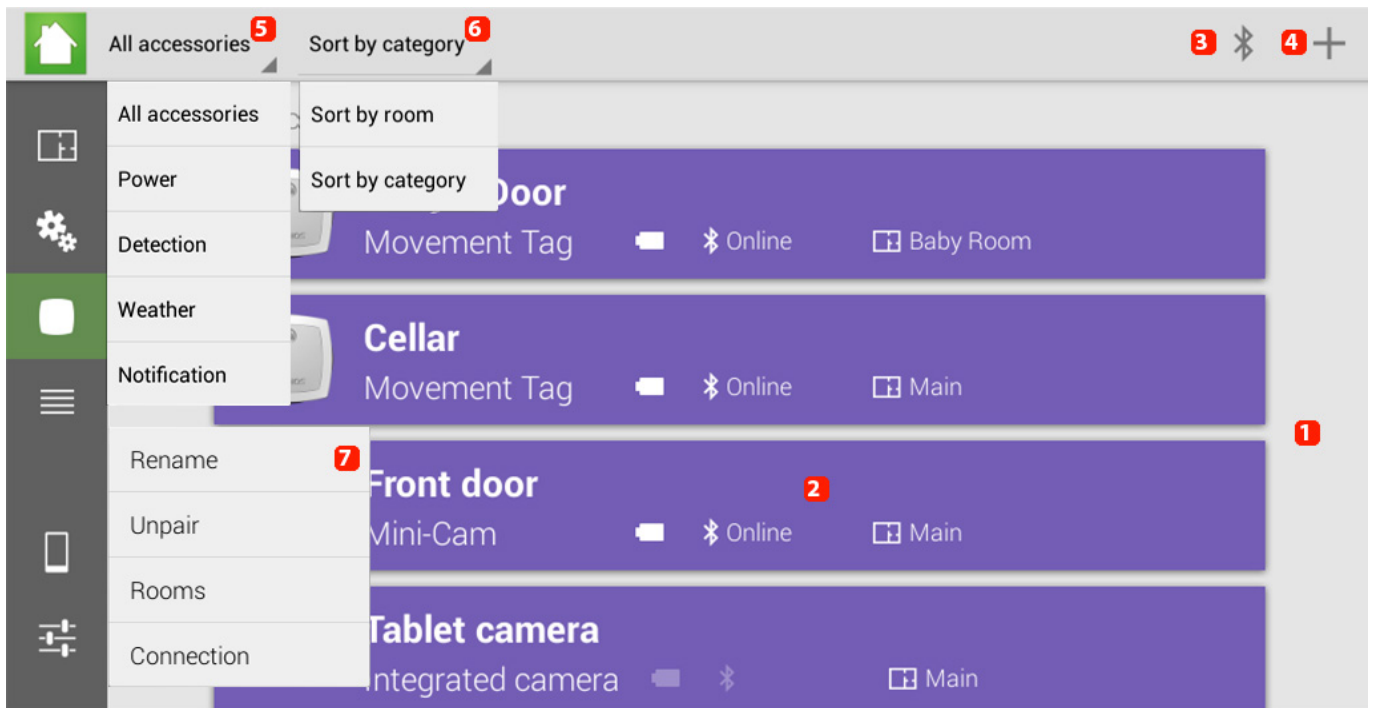

1. List of different programs created

2. It indicates if the program is activated or deactivated. Press to turn on/off.

3. It allows to create a new program.

4. Select a program to modify/delete it. Holding your finger on a program allows you also to start modify/delete/duplicate it.
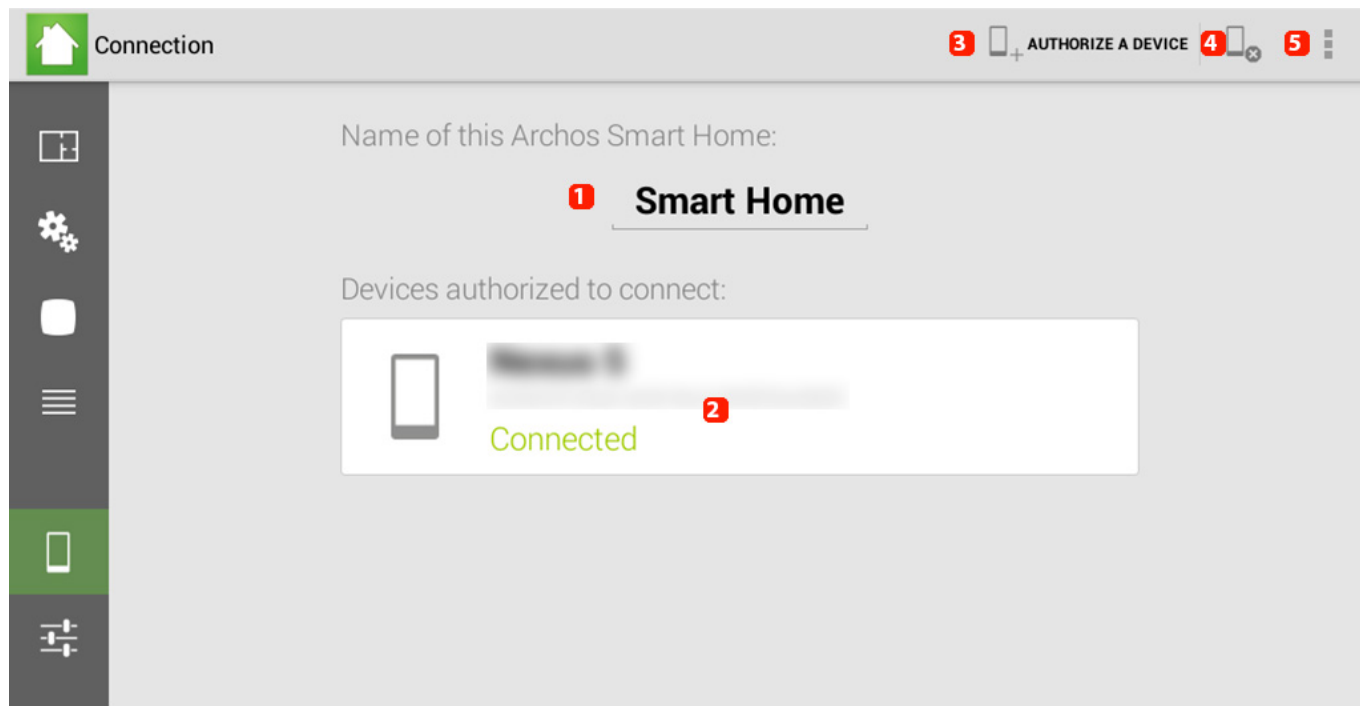

ARCHOS Smart Home app

Accessories tab

1. List of different accessories paired with your tablet

2. Information related to your accessory: battery/connectivity/location

3. You can display the Bluetooth® connectivity status of your accessories

4. You can add a new accessory

5. You can select the type of information you want to display

6. You can sort items according to their location or category

7. Select an accessory to access its contextual menu

ARCHOS Smart Home app
Connection menu

From this tab, you can link a compatible device to your ARCHOS Smart Home

Tablet ⬆️ so that you can manage it from a distance.

1. Name of the tablet that will be displayed on your device. You can modify it.

2. Name and information about the devices linked to your tablet.

3. You can add a new device.

4. It allows to delete devices linked to the tablet.

5. It allows to display informations provided by the application.