

Accounts, E-mail & Contacts

How can I update my apps?

By default, Google Play™  lets you know when an update is available and downloads it automatically when you're connected on WiFi. However, some updates can require a confirmation from you to be downloaded.

You will receive a notification in the notifications bar to inform you when updates are available or required. You can also see the list of available updates in Google Play > My apps

Unique solution ID: #1545

Author: Admin FAQ

Last update: 2014-11-14 16:10